INDIANS AT OMAHA STIRRED.

Chippewas Excited Over the Fighting in Minnesota.

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 7—The 600 red men of the Indian congress now assembled in Omaha are very much interested in the reports of fihting with the Minnesota Indians. Some of the braves at the exposition grounds are considerably excited over the situation. The manner in which the news was circulated among the Indians is a mystery, even to Capt. Mercer, who has charge of the camp. This morning a number of chiefs came to Mercer and asked him what the "heap big fight" up north means They listened in silence to the statements of the Captain.

There are fifteen Chippewas in the camp from near the scene of the fighting. They seemed greatly interested and talked among themselves in an excited manner for Indians. Their chief, Owl Face Man, was asked by Capt. Mercer what he thought of the fighting. He grunted with much energy and said:

"White man much mean, but Injuns mean, too, cause not treated right. Will be heap big fight before war over cause Injuns have heap good guns."

Owl Face Man is not a head chief, but is in charge of his men here and seems very intelligent. He said his men first heard of the fighting from a half breed who read of it in the morning papers. Other Indians on the ground, especially those Apaches and Sioux from the west who know something of the fightlng qualities and number of United States troops, ridicule the Chippewas for going to war. Old Geronimo, the famous old Apache chief, who has been a prisoner since being captured by Crook after his desperate fighting in the south, was an interested listener to what Capt. Mercer said to his men. He was too dignified to ask information, but evidently was much interested, because he thought a great Indian uprising was on.

When he found the fighting was confined to a little tribe away north of any territory he knew aught of he had nothing more to say. When asked by Capt. Mercer if he would like to fight, the old warrior's eye flashed, but he merely grunted with disgust.

AT THE McADOO.

Manager Perkins is Making Many Improvements.

A Telegram representative dropped in at the McAdoo House this morning and was met with a surprise that pleased him. Always glad and proud to note any item of improvement in any Greensboro enterprise, external or internal, we are pleased to chronicle the fact that Manager Perkins is turning things about in the McAdoo in a manner that adds greatly to the convenience of the place.

It was already one of the best arranged houses in the state, Mr. W. D. McAdoo displaying admirable judgment at the time it was erected. But in a few of its appointments after a lapse of some years, changes for the better suggested themselves and they are now being carried out.

The washroom and toilet has been moved from the rear of the office and placed in the basement on the front under the writing room with broad and easy stairs leading down to it. This change in itself is a very great improvement and will be appreciated by the guests.

In addition to this the large space just back of the clerk's desk has been converted into a handsome and commodious sample room. The work of making these changes is now in progress and when completed, which will only be a day or two, now, the McAdoo will justly be entitled to the place she already occupies among North Carolina's best hotels.

Strolling Around The Market.

One strolling into the City Market on a tour of inspection is sure to remain longest at Stall No. 1. The first thing to attract his attention is a vase of beautiful roses placed on an elevated piece of marble in the center of the front counter. Once he looks inside the stall he will stand and continue to look and wonder how everything can be kept so neat and clean in a meat stall. The chop blocks look almost as clean as the marble covered counter and everything else is neat in proportion. The stall this morning was literally lined with beef, mutton, lamb, veal, etc., and each place seemed to be trying to look better than the one next to it Everybody was busy; if not cutting meat they were cleaning up. Mr. Forbis, the proprietor has made Stall No. 1. the best ventilated in the market. The large amount of meat on display there this morning is evidence that he has a splendid trade. He says he is doing better than he expected, the reason is plain—he has one of the neatest stalls ever seen in Greensboro.

LIFE OVER AT THE NORMAL.

A Telegram Man Visits This Great School.

THE BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS.

"An Ideal Place for Young Ladies to Learn Everything That Will Be Useful to Them in Life."

A great deal remains to be said of the State Normal and Industrial College. After the opening exercises were concluded Thursday morning, a Telegram reporter was shown over the college grounds consisting of 116 acres. On these grounds is grown corn and other crops.

The first building visited was the barn and cow stalls, admirably arranged for the convenience of the barn tender as well as the cattle. The cows and stalls are numbered and are placed under shelter accordingly.

Just in the rear of the barn several acres are fenced in which serves as a cow pen, and contains at present 40 cows. At the lower side there has been a splendid watering place made where the cows go to drink at will. The cattle are all of very fine stock, and kept in excellent order. Enough milk and butter are made from the cows to furnish the college with all it needs, which means a great saving in the expenses of the institution.

Next in line comes the pig pen, and it is the cleanest place of the kind the reporter has ever had the pleasure of seeing. It is run on the graded school system—a room and a lane for each size. We were told that under this plan the large hogs were not able to push the little ones around, and of course it is true, for they can't get together.

A substantial dairy building is situated in a little ravine back of the college, in which will be operated the milk and cream separator. Fresh water from a brook runs through one end of the building and vessels containing milk are floating in the water, thereby keeping the milk cool and fresh.

On invitation, the reporter visited the college yesterday afternoon to observe the cooking arrangement and to see the young ladies set the tables and bring in the victuals. The food is transferred from the kitchen to the dining room by the use of large trucks, making the work of transportation very much easier and quicker.

The kitchen is very large, well lighted and is kept "as clean as a pin." Wonderfully well kept for a place where so much business is carried on, showing the efficiency of the management.

The dining room contains thirty-five tables, each accommodating ten girls. At 5:50 the notification bell is sounded and in ten minutes the food is placed on the tables: at 6:00 the bell is again sounded and the girls come in at each end of the room and go to their respective places. When their places are reached they stand with bowed heads, behind their chairs, while Miss Kirkland asks the blessing. They then sit down and help themselves. When all at one table have finished they are excused.

The reporter, in response to an invitation, was given a seat at Miss Kirkland's table and took supper there. The time was passed very pleasantly, and the meal was greatly enjoyed. The fare, while not of any great variety, is of excellent quality and well prepared. The kitchen and dining room are under the direct supervision of Miss Fannie W. Turner, the efficient matron.

After supper the reporter was invited to remain in the dining room and see the young ladies gather up the dishes. This was done with the regularity of clock work, each girl having her own part to perform, and within an hour the dishes were washed and tables set, ready for breakfast.

The State Normal and Industrial College is an ideal place for young ladies to learn anything and everything that will be useful to them in life.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News From Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU, HIGH POINT, N. C., Oct. 8, '98.

Never before in the history of High Point was there assembled as large a crowd of both sexes, of all classes of every profession and of all sizes and all colors of people as was assembled last night in the Anchor Warehouse, to hear a political speech or any other kind. The speaker, Hon. R. B. Glenn was met at the train by Messrs. R. A. Wheeler, R. C. Charles, F. M. Pickett, Dr. Bradshaw and others, who escorted him to the hotel, thence to the warehouse. He was met at the train also by the Cornet band. When the speaker and escorts reached the building the music and applause made the building fairly tremble. As he took his seat upon the platform Mr. Joe Newton presented a beautiful bunch of roses from Mrs. C. A. Hamner. He also pinned one on the lapel of the speakers coat He was introduced in a very complimentary and appropriate manner by Dr. Bradshaw. After removing his collar as usual which of course Doctor Bradshaw had already stated would be the case, he arose and said that he had strained himself to come to High Point and speak, and that while he was not running for any office a thousand dollars would not prevent him from coming here if he thought that anything he might say would cause one man to cast his vote as men of common sense who understand the issues of this campaign. We have had the pleasure of hearing Bryan, Dixon, Stevenson, Watson and "Snollyghoster" Ham, but have never before heard a man appeal to the reason and intelligence of all classes as did Bob Glenn last night. It is useless to say anything further than that it was the best political speech in every particular that was ever made in this community, even by Glenn himself, or any other man of any party. Never before were there as many ladies present at a political speaking as were present last night Never before were ladies seen shaking hands with a political speaker. It looked like an old camp meeting. After the speaker was through an exceedingly beautiful bouquet was presented him by Dr. Bradshaw from the many ladies present. Much credit is due Mrs. R. A. Wheeler and Mrs. P. H. Johnson in getting up this beautiful floral offering. Mr. Glenn attempted to thank the ladies but the band broke loose on "Dixie."

A wreck occurred on Page's road yesterday afternoon near Star, caused by the rails spreading. One passenger coach turned completely over with fifteen people therein. Mr. J. N. Longest, builder and contractor, of Greensboro, lost the middle finger on his right hand, caused by the back of a seat turning over on it. Mr. J. E. Kanoy, of Star, formerly of this place, was badly-shaken up, though we trust that his injuries are not serious. One other young man from Moore county was in the wreck and was so badly scarred that he hardly knew where he was from or where he was going. In fact he did forget his postoffice. Mr. Longest passed through last night enroute home.

The usual services will be held tomorrow morning and evening at all of the churches by the pastors if nothing Providentially happens.

The Old Hoss sale was in progress as we send in our items.

We are told that one of the proprietors of the Eagle Furniture Company has said since we made a complaint about that most horryfying racket that was ever produced by steam and steel, that they call a whistle, that if the whistle was annoying to any one they would take it down. Whether he thinks that was a sarcastic reply to us or not, we don't know, but will inform him that we have already been commended by no less than fifteen of our best citizens for taking the stand we have and that we can bring him the list of them if he wants it.

Par Excellence.

S. L. Alderman, the photographer, has placed some samples of his pastel portraits in John B. Fariss' window and be it said for Mr. Alderman that it is as good work as can be done. With some of Greensboro's most beautiful young ladies as subjects and that touch of workmanship which places a picture on the very pinnacle of excellence, he has made pictures that cannot be improved upon. Our people may well remember that besides having one of the finest galleries in the south, Mr Alderman is unsurpassed in the south as an artist.

Cretan Conditions.

By Cable To THE TELEGRAM.

Canea, Oct. 8—Many Christians and Musselman Jews are leaving the island. All steamers are crowded, and members of the different catholic orders have moved their valuables to places of safety. Influential Musselmans, however, assert that trouble is improbable, as the population is cowed by the sultan's consent to the departure of troops.

WELL CONSIDERED LINES

Being Followed by the Peace Commissioners.

HAVE A DEFINITE END IN VIEW.

Philippines Question Not Yet Reached but Likely to Cause Difficulty When It Does Come Up.

By Cable THE TELEGRAM.

Paris, Oct. 8—The American peace commissioners began a three hours' session at ten o'clock today.

They have taken into consideration the direct suggestions and counter propositions from the Spaniards, and are acting along well considered lines, with a definite end in view. They have in some degree disclosed the American expectation and determination. The Spaniards, however, seem unable or unwilling yet to understand or believe that at the outset the Americans set forth their requirements and that they are destined to remain virtually unchanged by diplomacy.

While the Philippines have not yet been reached in the deliberations, this question is not far distant, and on that point there is likely to come the full stress of the diplomatic controversy.

Gaulois says: "The Philippine question was somewhat touched upon though not discussed yesterday, but there are enough indications of serious difficulty when it comes up."

Maxim in Trouble.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Oct. 8—Inventor Maxim, of the famous gun, who is charged with bigamy and abandonment, appeared in police court this morning and was remanded to the custody of Poughkeepsie police and started for that city to answer the complaint. Maxim said the woman was not his wife; he met her on the Bowery ten years ago and that his wife was divorced from him on her account. She registered at different hotels in his name but without his consent. Fifteen years ago she persecuted him similarly but without avail. Maxim has been visiting New England summer resorts with his wife this summer.

That Ultimatum.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Constanitnople, Oct. 8—The ultimatum to the powers to Turkey in regard of the evacuation of Crete by the Turks, declared that should the Sultan refuse to yield he will lose his sovereign rights to Crete. This irritated the Turkish circles. They call the action of the powers unjust, and entertain the hope that Russia will decline to co-operate with the other powers, in which case it is believed that the latter will not resort to extremities.

Fire in Atlantic City.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Atlantic City, N. J., Oct. 8—A destructive fire occurred here this morning. Two blocks of buildings on Tennessee and Ocean avenues, including the Palace hotel, were destroyed. The fire originated in Kipples & Kanna bath houses, on Tennessee avenue. Loss about $300,000.

$4.15 and He Couldn't Pay It.

Charles Emerson, a colored boy who has been employed in the Greensboro Barber Shop, and whose good works shine on others' shoes, was tried before 'Squire Eckle a short while ago for slapping a little colored girl. 'Squire thought the experience worth $2 15 and Charles paid it. The Telegram then advised all boys to let the old folks do the slapping, but Charles thought he had been cheated in the transaction and proceeded to slap some more the next chance he got.

He was arrested again this morning and another magistrate thought Charles owed the state $4.15 for practicing on one of its citizens. Charles couldn't raise the money, and if help doesn't run he will go to the roads.

Funeral of Chas. Marsh.

The funeral of Chas. W. Marsh, who died in Washington, D. C., Saturday night, took place in Fayetteville, N. C., the home of his youth, on Tuesday afternoon. He was for a number of years connected with the Southern Express Co., and was on the route from here to Winston, to Goldsboro, afterwards Richmond to Charlotte, his last route being Washington to Augusta, Ga. For several years Richmond was his home, where he made many friends. He was a brother of our former citizen Jas. N. Marsh.

Physicians Plenty.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Oct. 8—Maj. Griffin, of Camp Thomas, is before the war investigation board. He said the second division hospital was now crowded and that the physicians were ample and competent.

No Deaths.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Jackson, Miss., Oct. 8—There are no deaths or critical cases of fever today, and efforts are being made to have the governor return. There is fear of a general spread of the diease.

TAXES.

The question of taxation is always an interesting one. Under republican rule, inaugurated in this state just after the war, the burden of taxation was very heavy. Hundreds of thousands of dollars were wrung from the impoverished and struggling people, and insult and injury given in return therefor. No school houses or asylums were built, and no school teachers were employed for either the white or the black race.

Zeb Vance (God bless his memory, and when we say this every true North Carolinian will say, amen!) came into power and with a democratic legislature, began to build up the waste places and transform the scene, devastated and burned by war and the ashes raked by a republican carpet-bag government, into a veritable flower garden.

How did the democrats do it? Did they accomplish it by an increase of taxes? No; they did it by a reduction of taxes and a just and honest and economical administration. In a short time taxes were reduced to less than half what they were under republican rule, and a little later to less than one-third.

While this was being done, school houses and asylums were being built, and happiness and prosperity began to reign. Great good came to the old state from the 20 years of democratic rule; but what do we see now?

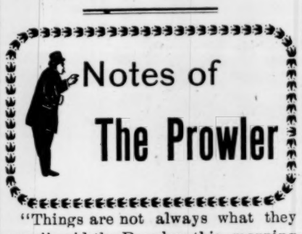
Look at the situation a moment and on the 8th of November let the curtain fall on the shame and degradation brought on Tarheeldom by the fusion crowd. In 1894 a fusion legislature was elected. Again in 1896 the same direful calamity befell the state. Rascals and incompetency (and the records bear us out in using these terms) have run riot. Departments have been scandalized until the whole fusion administration has become a scandal—a burning shame and a disgrace to the state.

Taxes have been largely increased in order to meet the increased expenses incurred by increasing offices and by otherwise mismanaging affairs. Nearly four hundred thousand dollars more to run three years of fusion rule than to run the preceding three years of democratic rule! Think of it and remember that YOU have to help pay it.

Look at your tax receipts now and compare them with your receipts under democratic rule. This is a part of the government in which every man is directly and powerfully interested. Which do you prefer, a clean, white man's government with a reduction of taxes, or a mongrel black and tan negro-magistrate-alderman-policeman-register-of-deeds-school-committemen, etc., crowd with greater expenses and increasing taxes?

Which?

No campaign rot about this. Look at it for yourselves. The great God who created you has endowed you with common sense—and that is all that is required to see that these things are true. Be guided by common sense and honest motives and you will cast your vote right.



"Things are not always what they seem" said the Prowler this morning as he called to borrow a match to light his cigar stump. "For instance, I saw a well-known newspaper man rolling a baby carriage up the street the other day, and everybody wanted to know what he wanted with it. I said that was his business; but the crowd said, 'no, sir, he's got no use for it.' And I came near getting in a fight about it. It seems like any man who wants to do so ought to have the right to buy a baby carriage; but I guess he hasn't unless he tells the populace what he is going to do with it."

"I am constrained to believe that I know the fellow who told the Winston Sentinel that the Yadkin river bottoms look just like the republican party will after the election. He's an old drummer, or more properly speaking, a commercial traveler, and, of course, he knows what he is talking about. Drummers always do. This one, after looking at the devastated fields, fences all washed away, corn all broken down, matted, wilted and covered with mud, asked himself the question: 'What scene of destruction can equal this?' Then, with the true drummer's instinct, he exclaimed: 'Looks just like the republican party will after November 8th.' I'll bet a ginger cake and a mug o' cider that fellow is a prophet."

And the Prowler went out to warn his republican neighbor of the flood that's coming, and the awful mess of mud he'll have to flounder in if he don't get out of the low grounds.

At the Academy.

The Lillian Tucker Opera Company opens at the Academy next Monday night in "The Buckeye." The company is even better than last year. The Wilming Star says:

"The Lilian Tucker Company made the greatest hit of their present engagement last night. It was secured from a large audience, and with the presentation of the play "A Hero in Rags." The piece possesses an intensely interesting plot and many very dramatic climaxes, which have to be worked up just right to keep from being too tame, and consequently ludicrous to the audience, or on the other hand, too blood-curdling and disgusting to a refined audience. A play of this type is difficult to present, but if done so, as it certainly was last night, never fails to win laurels.

The title role was in the hands of Mr. Chas. C. Vaught. It couldn't have been better allotted. The part gave him powerful scope. In one moment bubbling comedy convulsing the entire audience; the next, strong pathos and stirring heroic action obtaining hearty plaudits from people stirred body and soul by the acting. Mr. Vaught was fully equal to the difficult requirements of the character, and covered himself with glory.

Miss Lilian Tucker as Hattie Salisbury, was her usual charming self, and gave to the audience a finished bit of acting.

The rest of the cast, and admirably sustained, included Misses Eunice Goodrich and Dorothy Walbert and Messrs. Thaddeus Gray, J. Francis Kirk and Joseph Thayer.

All the specialties were meritorious and well received. Miss Goodrich's fire dancing was beautiful."

Seats went on sale for Monday night's performance yesterday morning, and point to a crowded house. One lady admitted free on Monday night with each thirty-cent ticket.

Beats The Klonkike.

Mr. A. C. Thomas, of Marysville, Tex., has found a more valuable discovery than has yet been made in the Klondike. For years he suffered untold agony from consumption, accompanied by hemmorhages; and was absolutely cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. He declares that gold is of little value in comparison with this marvelous cure: would have it, even if it cost a hundred dollars a bottle. FORT BAGLEY.

Memory of the Young North Carolinian is Honored in Philadelphia.

From the Germanton (Philadelphia) Independent Gazette, of last week, we make the following extract:

"An earthwork known as Fort Bagley, situated on East Chelton avenue, near Stenton avenue, was dedicated on Tuesday evening, with appropriate ceremonies and enthusiasm. Of all the mimic fortifications erected so far in this section, this is one of the most realistic, being a reproduction of a section of breastwork such as was often thrown up in a few hours by the Union or Confederate forces during the Civil War, and over the possession of which many bloody contests were fought.  The name of Bagley was enthusiastically cheered when it was asserted that the blood of that noble young Southern patriot, shed in defense of the Stars and Stripes, had done more toward healing the differences and soothing the bitter feelings between the North and the South than had been accomplished by all combined influences in more than thirty years. There was singing of patriotic airs, music, fireworks and raising of three little girls, dressed in national colors."

Old fashions in dress may be revived, but no old-fashioned medicine can replace Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by C. E. Holton.

You invite disappointment when you experiment. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are pleasant, easy, thorough little pills. They cure constipation and sick headache just as sure as you take them. Howard Gardner.

Free Pills.

Send your address to H. E. Bucklen & Co., Chicago, and get a free sample box of Dr. King's New Life Pills. A trial will convince you of their merits. These pills are easy in action and are particularls effective in the cure of constipation and sick headache. For malaria and liver troubles they have been proved invaluable. They are guaranteed to be perfectly free from every deleterious substance and to be purely vegetable. They do not weaken by their action, but by giving tone to stomach and bowels greatly invigorate the system. Regular size 25c per box. Sold by C. E. Holton, druggist.

The Truth.

It is nothing short of amusing to watch the fusion county candidates as they skim around over the county afraid to meet anybody. "Honestly" said a man yesterday, who had been observing their methods, "I believe they'd shy around a democrat if they were to meet him in the road, and the News and Observer would make them take to the woods any time. The people are not fond of candidates that dodge the issues."—News and Observer.

To See the Lillian Tucker Co.

The doors will open at the Academy next Monday night at 7 o'clock, and the curtain will ring up at 8 o'clock. From the record of this company, wherever they have appeared this season, and from the present indications from the number of seats taken, Manager Blackburn does not think he will be able to nearly seat the crowd Monday night. Though, if you fail one night, try again; they are here for a full week.

How to Prevent Croup.

We have two children who are subject to attacks of croup. Whenever an attack is coming on my wife gives them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and it always prevents an attack. It is a household necessity in this county and no matter what else we run out of, it would not do to be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. More of it is sold here than of all other cough medicines combined.—J. M. Nickle, of Nickle Bros., merchants, Nickleville, Pa. For sale by C. E. Holton.

Three Doctors in Consultation.

From Benjamin Franklin.

"When you are sick, what you like best is to be chosen for a medicine in the first place; what experience tells you is best, to be chosen in the second place; what reason (i. e. Theory) says is best is to be chosen in the last place. But if you can get Dr. Inclination, Dr. Experience and Dr. Reason to hold a consultation together, they will give you the best advice that can be taken."

When you have a bad cold Dr. Inclination would recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy because it is pleasant and safe to take. Dr. Experience would recommend it because it never fails to effect a speedy and permanent cure. Dr. Reason would recommend it because it is prepared on scientific principles, and acts on nature's plan in relieving the lungs, opening the secretions and restoring the system to a natural and healthy condition. For sale by C. E. Holton.

One Minute Cough Cure surprises people by its quick cures and children may take it in large quantities without the least danger. It has won for itself the best reputation of any preparation used today for colds, croup, tickling in the throat or obstinate coughs. Howard Gardner.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.

W. M. Fuller, of Durham, was here last evening.

W. J. Griswold, of Durham, was here this morning.

W. W. Smith, of Raleigh, spent last night at the Benbow.

H. L. Stevens, of Warsaw, spent last night in the city.

J. R. Joyce, of Reidsville, was at the McAdoo last evening.

Marsden Bellamy, of Wilmington, spent last night at the Benbow.

Hon. W. J. Adams, of Carthage, is in the city today on legal business.

W. C. Hammer, editor of the Asheboro Courier, was in the city today on legal business.

John W. King left this morning for a business trip through the eastern part of the State.

Corporal R. F Haskell, of Company H, Second North Carolina Volunteers, was here this morning.

Mrs. George T. Brown, of Winston, passed through last night returning home from a visit to New York.

Lieut. Harold E. Johnston, of Company M, Second North Carolina Volunteers, was in the city this morning.

Hon. Spencer Blackburn, assistant district attorney, left last night for Raleigh. He will return to Greensboro tonight.

Judge Spencer B. Adams, of Yadkinville, and Lieutenant Governor Charles A. Reynolds, of Winston, came in last night and stopped at the Benbow.

Mr. George T. Kearsley, of Radford, Va., receiver of the Radford Street Railway Co., is in the city spending a few days. He is much impressed with the evidences of thrift and hustling appearance of Greensboro.

J. L. White and family, of Douglas, Kansas, are stopping at the Allen. Mr. White went to Kansas from North Carolina twenty years ago to seek his fortune. He has found it and returned to North Carolina to spend some time visiting relatives.

Truth wears well. People have learned that DeWitt's Little Early Risers are reliable little pills for regulating the bowels, curing constipation and sick headache. They don't gripe. Howard Gardner.

RED STRING TACTICS.

Claude Dockery Holding a Negro Night Meeting.

The methods now being pursued by the rep.-pop. pie-chasers, in their night meetings with negroes, brings to mind the days just after the war when the red string party flourished. It almost surpasses belief that a man with a white skin could sink so low as to secretly meet a crowd of negroes, in the dark hours of the night, and plot with them for the downfall of his own race. But just this thing is being done. A private letter received a few days ago from a gentleman who lives near Rockingham tells of a meeting of this sort, at which Claude Dockery officiated, as follows:

"A crowd of young folks went hay riding one night last week and went near a negro church, and a crowd of negroes halted them and made them go back. Claude Dockery was having a meeting with them and put these guards out to keep the whites back."—Wadesboro Messenger.

More than twenty million free samples of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve have been distributed by the manufacturers. What better proof of their confidence in it's merits do you want? It cures piles, burns, scalds, sores, in the shortest space of time. Howard Gardner.

You possibly do not believe in new fangled things. Neither do we.

When a thing has been demonstrated, then it becomes practical. We believe in practical things; so do you.

It has been practically demonstrated that our line of Hamburger Bros, & Co.'s artistically tailored garments are the best-fitting, best-looking and most satisfactory wearing garments that have ever bee offered, regardless of price. You will find them only with us, in regulars, stouts and slims.

Matthews, Chisholm & Stroud

Clothiers and Haberdashers,

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

R. W. Finlator came in today from a trip to Randolph county.

H. B. Worth, treasurer of the North Carolina railroad, is in the city this afternoon.

Editor R. M. Phillips left at noon today for Wilmington to spend Sunday on the beach.

"Low prices and good work win" is the text of the new ad of E. L. Tate, printer, today. Read it.

C. E. Holton, druggist. has something to say in his space on first page today that may interest you.

Z. V. Conyers left at noon for Raleigh, where he will remain until the Second regiment is mustered out.

Are you looking for bargains? If so, read the ad of McClamroch Bros. and see what they have to offer you.

Joe Thomas and family, who have lived near here for several years have moved to Greensboro.—Jonesboro Progress.

Matthews, Chisholm & Stroud talk "practical" sense in their ad today. It will do you good all over if you will read it.

Rev. J. A. B. Fry, of Winston, passed through today returning home from Reidsville where he has been assisting in a revival.

Rev. and Mrs. A. A. Pruden passed through at noon today, enroute to Durham, to visit a short while. Mr. Pruden is chaplain of the First regment, at Jacksonville.

The advertising car for Forepaw & Sells Brothers' Circus is in the city and the town is being covered with bills. Several hacks have been sent out in the country to post bills.

Col. W. A. Turk, general passenger agent of the southern, and daughter, and M. McCants, his private stenographer, passed through at noon today returning to Washington from Raleigh

Beginning tomorrow night Dr. Smith, of the First Presbyterian church will preach a short series of sermons on lessons from the Life of Judas Iscariot. The public is cordially invited.

There will be no services to-morrow morning at either St. Barnabas or St. Andrews, as both congregations and both choirs unite in the opening service at St. Mary's Memorial Chapel on Walker avenue.

Mr. John Mangum, of Stokesdale, who once manufactured tobacco in Clover, Cleveland county, says he thinks the "man who can't tell his own name," now at the county home, is Prof. Balfour, of Clover Mr. G. Will Armfield has written to the postmaster at that place to see if he is known there.

This is D. Bendheim & Son's opening day. The store is elaborately decorated with palms, flags, buntings and beautiful gay colored goods, and presents quite an imposing appearance. Fine orchestra music will be present till a late hour tonight. It will help any one to go out and see the decorations and hear the music.

Messrs. A. A. F. Seawell, of Jonesboro and Duncan E. McIver, of Sanford, came up yesterday afternoon on legal business and returned home at noon today. These gentlemen are partners in the practice of law, having offices at Jonesboro and Sanford. They are both excellent campaign speakers and are doing much for the cause of democracy in their section.

THE GAME YESTERDAY.

Oak Ridge 6, Greensboro 5.—The Line Up.

The game at Oak Ridge yesterday afternoon resulted in the above score. Twenty minute halves were played. Greensboro kicked off and soon gained possession of the ball, Wharton making a touchdown. Greensboro failed on goal. On the first scrimmage after the next lineup Greensboro fumbled, the ball rolling off to one side. Ricks, the left end of Oak Ridge, picked up the ball with a flash and went down the field like a shot cat, scoring touchdown. Capt. Wright, of Oak Ridge, kicked goal. The next half was a series of fumbles for Greensboro. When time was called the ball was in two yards of Oak Ridge's touch line. The Oak Ridge team play clean ball; they have a good line and quick backs. Herbe, Wright, Horner and Morris played strong ball for Oak Ridge. For Greensboro, Reynold's 70 yards runs was the star play; Wharton, Devin and Cone, C. bore the brunt of the fight for Greensboro. Cone, J. sprinted round Oak Ridge's right end for thirty yards. Lewis and Andrews, though the youngest men, are both most promising, and have the right sort of foot ball mettle in them.

Umpire—Mr. Bennett; referee—Mr. Carter; timekeepers—Prof. Holt and Mr. Daniel.

Greensboro did not play some of its heaviest men—substitutes being in the game.

Our Grand Fall Opening

Takes Place

Saturday and Monday

Oct. 8th and 10th.

We want each and every one of our friends and patrons to consider themselves personally invited to attend our GRAND FALL OPENING, SATURDAY AND MONDAY, Oct. 8th and 10th. We refrained from sending out special announcement cards, as we think it but fair that each and all should alike receive a cordial invitation. While our store contains the richest, the finest, the most exclusive, of all the New Fall goods, those whose taste and purse runs along more modest lines have not been forgotten. So we take this the most public, the most far-reaching way, to extend to each and all a hearty welcome to our display for the Fall and coming Winter.

Our preparations have been extraordinary, and we want you to enjoy the fruit of our labor, time and enterprise. All departments will appeal to you items of special interest, whose "OPENING" prices will make your coming worth while.

☞Evening Reception will be held Saturday and Monday, Oct. 8th and 10th, from 7.30 to 9.30. Prof. Elam's fine Greensboro Orchestra will be in attendance and render all the popular airs of the day to enliven the occasion.

☞Store will close at 6.30 P. M.; open at 7.30 sharp, when we will welcome all to the reception.
